Randy Worcester of WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Home Pros Named Clarksville Association of REALTORS® 2016 Decade of Achievement Award Recipient

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. / Feb. 1, 2017 – WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Home Pros is proud to announce Randy Worcester has been awarded the 2016 Decade of Achievement Award by the Clarksville Association of REALTORS. Worcester is the Broker/Owner of WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Home Pros in Clarksville, Tennessee.

“I am truly honored to be recognized for my years of involvement with the Clarksville Association of REALTORS,” said Worcester. “As a professional association, we strive to improve the reputation of REALTORS in the Clarksville area along with the quality of real estate services provided to home buyers and sellers throughout Tennessee.”

The recipient of the Decade of Achievement Award, in addition to displaying integrity in dealing with others and exemplifying high moral character, must have consistently supported the Clarksville Association of REALTORS over the past 10-plus years. The award recipient must also have no professional violations with the National Association of REALTORS or the Tennessee Real Estate Commission.

Randy Worcester

Worcester was also recently honored by the National Council of Residential Specialists for having served as State President for Tennessee during 2016. Worcester leads a team of knowledgeable agents at WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Home Pros, which offers a complete menu of real estate services, including property management and relocation. The Weichert® affiliated office serves clients in the greater Clarksville area.

Worcester is an Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR), a Graduate REALTOR Institute (GRI) designee, a Military Relocation Professional (MRP), and a Certified Residential Specialist (CRS). He is also a graduate of Leadership TAR (Tennessee Association of REALTORS), as well as a past president of the Clarksville Association of REALTORS and the recipient of the association’s 2011 REALTOR of the Year award.
