Karen Brinkly of Weichert, Realtors® - Home Source Earns Broker's License

PARAGOULD, Ark. / Feb. 6, 2019 – Weichert, Realtors® - Home Source is proud to announce that Karen Brinkly has successfully completed all the state's requirements to become a licensed real estate broker in Arkansas.

Brinkly is a licensed real estate agent at the Weichert® affiliate, located in Paragould.

Brinkly earned her broker's license after completing 60 hours of classroom instruction that focused on topics such as broker management, federal housing laws, risk reduction and ethics. She also had to pass the Arkansas Real Estate Broker Examination.

Obtaining a broker's license means Brinkly is qualified to work alone while representing home buyers and sellers or hire agents to work with her.

"We are extremely proud of Karen for earning her broker's license," said Sandra Kelley, the broker/owner of Weichert, Realtors® - Home Source.

"Karen continuously strives to better herself as a real estate professional and improve the level of service she provides her clients," added Kelley. "Karen is an inspiration to her colleagues and tremendous asset to both our office and clients."

A licensed real estate agent since 2005, Brinkly is also part of a team of knowledgeable and dedicated agents at Weichert, Realtors® - Home Source, which brings many years of combined real estate expertise to its clients.

Brinkly lives in Paragould.

Weichert, Realtors® - Home Source is an independently owned and operated Weichert affiliate. The office serves Greene and Craighead counties.

For more information about Weichert, Realtors® - Home Source, located at 105 Reynolds Road in Paragould, contact Sandra Kelley at 870-236-3100 or visit homesource.co.
