Local Realtor® Sees Vacant City Commission Seat As A Way to Help Others Gerard Bullock of Weichert, Realtors® - The Andrews Group Hopes To Join Mount Juliet City Commission

NASHVILLE, Tenn. / June 20, 2019 – Gerard Bullock is all about helping others. Whether it's finding a dream home for a client or giving back to the community, the Weichert® affiliated real estate agent is ready to lend a helping hand.

That's why news of Bullock running for a vacant seat on the city commission in his hometown of Mount Juliet didn't surprise his colleagues at Weichert, Realtors® - The Andrews Group.

"Gerard is one of those guys who tries to help people any way he can. That's just what he does," said Tom Andrews, broker/owner of the company, which has offices in Nashville and Murfreesboro.

"Gerard's desire to be a part of the Mount Juliet City Commission shows just how much he's willing to help his hometown," added Andrews. "I can't think of a better person to fill this vacant seat and wish Gerard all the best."

Bullock's willingness to help his hometown goes beyond a seat on city commission, though. He also supports the city's business community through his involvement with the Mount Juliet Chamber of Commerce.

"Helping others is something I commit myself to doing every day, and not just with my real estate clients," said Bullock, who joined Weichert, Realtors® - The Andrews Group in 2017. "It would be an honor to further serve this community as a member of the Mount Juliet City Commission and I hope I get that chance when the commission votes later this month."

The Mount Juliet City Commission will open the floor at its June 24 meeting for nominations and vote on a potential candidate to fill the vacant seat. Bullock is one of four candidates who have expressed an interest in the open seat.

Weichert, Realtors® - The Andrews Group is an independently owned and operated Weichert® affiliate. The company serves the greater Nashville area.
