Local Realtor® Successfully Completes Senior Home Buyer and Seller Course and Flooring Specialist Class to Better Assist Real Estate Clients

DELMAR, N.Y. / March 21, 2019 — Weichert, Realtors® - Fontaine & Associates, located in Athens and Delmar, is proud to announce that Realtor Kristine Eagan has successfully completed an Aging in Place professional development course sponsored by the Greater Capital Region Association of Realtors.

Eagan also completed the regional association's intensive Fabulous Flooring continuing education class.

"It truly is an honor to be recognized as a real estate professional who is committed to working with seniors to address their specific home buying or selling needs," said Eagan. "I'm also excited to share what I learned during the association's flooring class with my clients to help identify the best type of floors for their house."

The Aging in Place course helps licensed real estate agents better address the unique needs of home buyers and sellers over the age of 50.

Eagan can confidently discuss all types of flooring after completing the Fabulous Flooring class. Eagan can also discuss where specific types of flooring are best suited in a home with her real estate clients.

"Kristine continuously strives to better herself as a real estate professional and improve the level of service she provides her clients," said Don Fontaine, the owner/broker at Weichert, Realtors® - Fontaine & Associates. "Kristine is an inspiration to her colleagues and tremendous asset to both our office and clients."

A licensed real estate agent since 2017, Eagan is part of a team of knowledgeable and dedicated agents at Weichert, Realtors® - Fontaine & Associates, which brings decades of combined real estate experience to its clients.

Eagan lives in Loudonville, New York.

Weichert, Realtors® - Fontaine & Associates is an independently owned and operated Weichert affiliate. The company serves the Capital District, Greene County and Columbia County, and the Hudson Valley.
