Local Realtors® Host Toiletry Drive To Help The Homeless Weichert, Realtors® - The Space Place partners with New Futures Family Lodge

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. / April 3, 2019 – What’s there not to like about a mother-daughter shopping day? They’re fun. It’s a great way for families to bond. And they’re fairly common, no matter where you live.

But Lynn and Erica Foster have found an even better way to spend quality time together – and it involves helping the less fortunate.

The mother-daughter duo, both agents at Weichert, Realtors® - The Space Place, is collecting personal hygiene products this month for New Futures Family Lodge, a homeless shelter in Huntsville.

“New Futures is an amazing organization that helps homeless families regain stability and reshape their lives,” said Lynn Foster. “My daughter and I are tremendously honored to support a local charity like this.”

The Fosters also have tremendous gratitude for their colleagues at the Weichert® affiliate – including the company’s broker/owner, Brenda Elliott – for supporting their toiletry drive.

“We can’t thank Brenda and everyone that we work with at Weichert, Realtors® - The Space Place enough for helping us collect much-needed supplies for New Futures,” said Erica Foster. “We’d also like to thank the community in advance for their support as well. Anything that they could donate would be greatly appreciated.”

The public is invited to come out and support the Weichert affiliate’s toiletry drive, which runs until April 30, to help support New Futures Family Lodge.

Donated items, including diapers, laundry detergent, shampoo, toothpaste and toothbrushes, undergarments for adults and children, and other personal hygiene products, can be dropped off weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the Huntsville real estate agency, located at 6767 Old Madison Pike.

For more information about the toiletry drive, contact Lynn Foster at 256-783-4284 or Erica Foster at 256-701-1027.
