Sheldon Wolin at Weichert, Realtors® – Grant Hamady Wins Michigan Broker Council Sales Award

BURTON, Mich. / Feb. 12, 2019 – Weichert, Realtors® - Grant Hamady, located in Burton, is proud to announce that Sheldon Wolin has been named the company's Top Agent of the Year for 2018, earning him the prestigious Ambassador Club award from Weichert Real Estate Affiliates, Inc.

Wolin was also named Michigan's top listing agent for units last year by the national franchise organization's Michigan Broker Council.

"I truly am honored to be recognized by my office and the Weichert® national franchise organization for my 2018 sales production," said Wolin. "This recognition, to me, is not about the numbers I produced last year. It's about proving that someone my age can succeed in real estate by using sincerity, professionalism and the amazing resources provided by Weichert to assist home buyers and sellers."

The 77-year-old Wolin also attributes his success to knowledge of the local market, trusting clients and a never ending attitude to help others.

"I've dealt with some major adversity during my 57-year real estate career. But I believe anything can be overcome if you try hard enough, despite all odds," added Wolin, who faced the possibility of having his larynx removed and living with a voice box after being diagnosed with Stage 3 throat cancer several years ago.

Wolin's never give up approach to business – or life – also inspires others.

"Shelly has a can do attitude and spirit that lifts his clients, our office and indeed the community," said Grant Hamady, broker/owner of the Burton-based Weichert affiliate. "Being recognized by Weichert Real Estate Affiliates, Inc. reiterates what Shelly's colleagues and clients already know: Shelly is one of the most gifted real estate professionals in Michigan."

Wolin is part of a team of talented agents at Weichert, Realtors® - Grant Hamady, which offers an array of real estate services.

Wolin lives in Grand Blanc, Michigan.
