Weichert, Realtors[®] - Fontaine & Associates Welcomes Irene Esposito

ATHENS, N.Y. / Nov. 1, 2017 — Weichert, Realtors[®] - Fontaine & Associates, serving the Capital District and Hudson Valley, is proud to announce that Irene Esposito has joined their office in Athens as a real estate salesperson. Esposito will be assisting home buyers and sellers in the Hudson Valley area.

“We are thrilled to have someone with Irene’s years of industry-related experience join our team of talented team of real estate professionals,” said Don Fontaine, owner/broker at Weichert, Realtors[®] - Fontaine & Associates. “Her passion for real estate and unique experience with various parts of the industry will be a tremendous asset for both our office and her clients. We warmly welcome Irene to our team.”

Irene Esposito

Esposito worked at Better Homes & Gardens prior to joining Weichert, Realtors[®] - Fontaine & Associates. She also brings more than 20 years of mortgage banking experience to her new position.

Esposito joins a team of knowledgeable and dedicated agents at Weichert, Realtors[®] - Fontaine & Associates, which brings decades of combined real estate experience to its clients. She is also excited to take advantage of agent training programs and resources provided by Weichert[®] to help offer the best service in the industry.

When she is not assisting home buyers and sellers, Esposito is actively involved with her place of worship, St. Mary’s Church. Esposito lives in Athens and holds a B.A. degree in accounting.
