Weichert, Realtors® - The Gregory Group Proud to Support Upcoming Alzheimer's Walk

GOODLETTSVILLE, Tenn. / Oct. 3, 2017 – Weichert, Realtors® - The Gregory Group, which has been a part of the greater Nashville area community for many years, is proud to support the 2017 Walk to End Alzheimer's Nashville event, taking place Sat., Oct. 14 at 8 a.m. at Walk of Fame Park in Nashville. The Tennessee-based Weichert® affiliate believes strongly in supporting their community and encourages local residents and businesses to join them in supporting this event.

"We are honored and excited to be a part of this year's Walk to End Alzheimer's fundraising event. Many of us have family members that have been touched by Alzheimer's or dementia or know of one that has," said Chris Gregory, the company's managing broker. Gregory's grandmother, Mary Magalene Wilburn, passed away from Dementia-related complications. "Being a part of this event gives us a chance to help those effected by this disease as well as their loved ones."

Held annually in more than 600 communities nationwide, the Alzheimer's Association Walk to End Alzheimer's is the world's largest event to raise awareness and funds for Alzheimer's care, support and research. This inspiring event calls on participants of all ages and abilities to join the fight against the disease.
