Weichert, Realtors® - Millennium Proud to Support 2nd Annual Hero School Golf Tournament Yearly event raises funds for homeless outreach

LAS VEGAS, Nev. / Feb. 8, 2018 – Weichert, Realtors® - Millennium, which has been a part of the greater Las Vegas area community for many years, is excited to be a part of the 2nd Annual Hero School Charity Golf Tournament. The Weichert® affiliated office is a sponsor for this year's event, which takes place March 3 at Spanish Trails Country Club in Las Vegas.

“We are honored and excited to once again be a part of this year's Hero School golf tournament,” said Scott Dale, the broker/owner of Weichert, Realtors® - Millennium and one of the organizers of the annual charity event. “The Hero School is deeply committed to addressing the many challenges facing the homeless in our community. Participating in the Hero School's charity golf tournament is one of the many ways our office helps raise funds for their outreach programs.”

Returning for its second year, the Hero School Charity Golf Tournament takes place at one of the Southwest's finest country clubs and five-time host site for the PGA Tour Las Vegas Invitational. The event raises awareness and funds for collaborative initiatives to help reverse and prevent homelessness in the Las Vegas area.

Space to play in the 2nd Annual Hero School Charity Golf Tournament is limited and filling up quickly. Remaining space will be offered on a first-come-first-served basis.
