REALTOR® Cynthia Woods Elected President of Professional Development Organization

SACRAMENTO, Calif. / March 16, 2017 – Cynthia Woods, a licensed real estate broker associate at WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Galster Group in Fair Oaks, has been named the 2017 President of the Sacramento Network. The Sacramento Network is a 56-member professional real estate group affiliated with the Women’s Council of REALTORS, a national professional development organization with 11,000 members.

Woods will serve a one-year term as president and will be responsible for providing leadership and direction for the network. Woods has been active in the Sacramento Network for four years and previously held the position of president-elect. She has been a REALTOR for six years and is currently a broker associate and sales manager at WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Galster Group.

“I am truly honored to serve as president of the Sacramento Network,” said Woods. “The Women’s Council of REALTORS has allowed me to expand my network of fellow REALTORS and affiliates in the real estate industry. I have many folks to draw from and that makes me a better agent for my clients.”

Besides a full-time career in real estate, Woods is active on the board of both River Oak Center for Children and the Veterans of Foreign War Auxiliary Post 904, as well as her local neighborhood community board.

“Cynthia is an extremely talented REALTOR that is always willing to do whatever she can to improve the reputation of real estate professionals in our area,” said Sue Galster, who co-owns WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Galster Group with her husband, Steve. “We are extremely proud of Cynthia’s appointment as president of the Sacramento Network and her willingness to help others.

WEICHERT, REALTORS® - Galster Group is an independently owned and operated Weichert affiliated office serving the greater Sacramento area. The office offers an array of real estate services including residential and commercial real estate, listings, and finding properties for first-time home buyers.
