Weichert, Realtors® - Ambassador Welcomes Katarina Angarola

NILES, Ill. / March 27, 2018 — Weichert, Realtors® - Ambassador, located in Niles, is proud to announce that REALTOR Katarina Angarola has joined their office. Angarola will be assisting home buyers and sellers in the Chicago metro area with all their real estate needs.

“We are thrilled to have such an energetic and detail-oriented real estate professional like Katarina join our team of talented agents,” said Stephen Costa, the managing broker at Weichert, Realtors® - Ambassador. “Katarina’s willingness to do whatever she can to assist home buyers and sellers, coupled with her background in the construction business, will be a tremendous asset to our office and clients as we continue to offer the best real estate service in the industry.”

Angarola’s construction experience will benefit her clients tremendously as she is able to point out structural issues that most agents cannot when showing homes. She also worked for a real estate attorney where she handled closings and escrow transactions.

Angarola joins a team of knowledgeable and dedicated agents at Weichert, Realtors® - Ambassador, which brings many years of combined real estate experience to its clients. She is also excited to take advantage of the numerous business tools and marketing strategies Weichert® provides its affiliate agents to help provide exceptional real estate service.

Angarola lives in Morton Grove, Illinois.

Weichert, Realtors® - Ambassador is an independently owned and operated Weichert affiliate. The office serves the Chicago metro area.
