Local Realtor Named Board Officer for Non-Profit Youth Organization Mitch Biesemeyer of Weichert, Realtors® - Centennial to Serve as Board Treasurer

NORMAN, Okla. / June 19, 2018 – Weichert, Realtors® - Centennial, located in Norman, is proud to announce that REALTOR Mitch Biesemeyer has been elected to serve as treasurer of the Norman Optimist Club, a non-profit organization dedicated to serving the youth of Norman and surrounding areas.

Biesemeyer's two-year term, where he will be responsible for providing leadership and guidance for the youth organization, runs through 2020. Biesemeyer has been involved with the Norman-based group for three years, spending the last two as a board member.

"I am truly honored to serve in this leadership position for a community-based organization that I am extremely passionate about," said Biesemeyer. "Donating my time to help this organization create a better experience for kids in our community has been rewarding beyond belief."

Mitch Biesemeyer

Biesemeyer obtained his real estate license in 2015, the same year he began working at Weichert, Realtors® - Centennial.

The Norman resident also attended the University of Oklahoma, where he earned multiple degrees. Biesemeyer completed his undergraduate studies with bachelor's degrees in journalism, broadcast and electronic media, and human resources management and services. He also earned a Master of Education degree in intercollegiate athletic administration.

"Mitch is one of our top producing agents who constantly finds ways to give back to the community," said Tony Graham, the broker/owner of Weichert, Realtors® - Centennial. "His willingness to help others in the communities we serve inspires others here in our office to do the same."

Weichert, Realtors® - Centennial is a full service real estate agency. The office serves the Oklahoma City metro area.
