“Having worked in a broad variety of sales, training and business development positions will help me immensely as I help our agents build the confidence and skill set needed to deliver the best real estate service in the industry,” Fuentez added.

In his new role, Fuentez will be responsible for facilitating agent training programs at the Weichert affiliate as well as connecting agents with business tools and management systems provided by Weichert to better assist home buyers and sellers.

“Ben is an amazing sales person who brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to his new management position,” said Wayne Murray, president and CEO of Weichert, Realtors® - The Murray Group. “Having him serve in this leadership position will be an asset to both our agents and clients that turn to us for help with all their real estate needs.”

Fuentez lives in the Magnolia area.

Weichert, Realtors® - The Murray Group is an independently owned and operated Weichert affiliate. The company has offices in Houston, The Woodlands, Katy and Sugar Land.
