Weichert, Realtors® - Unlimited Excited To Support Annual Spring Garden Work Day

ASHEVILLE, N.C. / March 12, 2019 — Spring is right around the corner, which means one thing for a group of local real estate agents: it's time to slip on the work gloves and pick up a garden rake.

And that's just what the team from Weichert, Realtors® - Unlimited will do on April 6.

The Weichert® affiliate, located in Asheville, is participating in next month's Spring Garden Community Work Day at Isaac Dickson Elementary School.

"Our office is both thrilled and honored to be a part of this year's Spring Garden Community Work Day," said Aaron Kraft, the managing broker at Weichert, Realtors® - Unlimited. "We can't wait to spend the day working alongside other community members, parents and teachers at the school."

The gardening team at Weichert, Realtors® - Unlimited, led by Andrew Lanteri, will help landscape new garden plots, harvest produce from the school's greenhouse, and construct raised garden beds, bird houses, bee boxes and much more.

Lanteri will also do a little something extra for the volunteers at the Spring garden event.

"I anticipate everyone there will work up an appetite while landscaping and building garden plots so I thought it would be nice to buy lunch for all the volunteers that day," said Lanteri.
