Toni Miller Earns Highly-Coveted National Residential Specialist Designation

BELLINGHAM, Wash. / Oct. 1, 2019 – Weichert, Realtors® - Vanson Associates, located in Bellingham and Lynden, is proud to announce that Toni Miller has been named a Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) by the National Association of Realtors.

Miller is a licensed real estate broker at the Washington State-based Weichert® affiliate.

“It truly is an honor to be recognized as a real estate professional who is committed to elevating the level of service that you’re able to provide your clients,” said Miller. “I gained even greater insight into some of the unique challenges facing home buyers and sellers and how best to resolve them. I definitely plan to use all that I learned to help sellers in our area.”

Toni Miller

Miller earned the highest credential awarded to residential sales agents, managers, and brokers by the National Association of Realtors after successfully completing an extensive course in residential real estate and passing a comprehensive exam. She joins an elite group of real estate professionals in North America who have earned the CRS designation.

On average, CRS designees earn nearly three times more in income, transactions, and gross sales than non-designee Realtors.

The National Association of Realtors created the CRS designation as a way to provide a comprehensive foundation of skill development, training and resources to help real estate professionals better represent buyer and seller clients.

Miller lives in Bellingham.
